

Company Overview

Hawkins Cookers Limited

Date: June 2025

About Hawkins Cookers Limited

Hawkins Cookers Limited was founded in 1959 by H.D. Vasudeva in technical collaboration with L.G. Hawkins of England, with a starting capital of Rs 20,000. Today the company employs approximately ~700 people and operates 4 manufacturing plants and 5 warehouses across India.

Hawkins is the market leader in pressure cookers in India and has exported products since 1974 to countries across all six continents. Worldwide the company has sold over 140 million+ units of pressure cookers and cookware.

Manufacturing Locations

|                         |                                                                      |
|-------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Thane, Maharashtra:     | Pressure Cooker Manufacturing   Est. 1959   Capacity: 8000 units/day |
| Hoshiarpur, Punjab:     | Cookware & PC Manufacturing   Est. 1998   Capacity: 6000 units/day   |
| Jaunpur, Uttar Pradesh: | Hard Anodised & Futura Range   Est. 2005   Capacity: 5000 units/day  |
| Thane (Unit 2):         | Die-Cast & Stainless Steel   Est. 2012   Capacity: 4500 units/day    |

Certifications

- Underwriters Laboratories USA
- BIS / ISI (mandatory from Feb 1 2021)
- CE Certification

Mission Statement

To win over customers, to truly please them by delivering products and service beyond their expectations, to earn their friendship and build relationships that will endure.